

Funeral Notice

Oaksey

Captain John Challenger Murray

Captain John Challenger Murray (44) of Oaksey Manor, who died in London on Friday, was buried yesterday at Oaksey.

Elder son of the late Sir John Murray of Edinburgh, he leaves a widow and three sons, and was, until ill-health forced him to resign last month, president of Kemble and District branch of the British Legion.

Representatives of that body, in the charge of Capt Foyle Fawcett, formed a guard of honour at Oaksey parish church yesterday.

The service, with Mrs Martin at the organ, was conducted by Canon Sole, rector of Crudwell, and the Rev T J V Williams, rector of Oaksey.

Family mourners were the widow Mrs Cecilia Murray and Mr Anthony Murray, Mr Christopher Murray and Mr Richard Murray (sons), and Miss Rhoda Murray (sister).

Others present at the service were Lady Florence Eden and Miss Nora Eden, the Hon Lady Lawrence, Rear-Admiral Bevan, Brigadier General C W M Norris, Capt C H Tremayne, Col and Mrs Faithfull, Canon Westmacott, Major De Freville, Capt and Mrs Phipps, Mrs Stockley, the Hon Michael Biddulph (also representing Lord and Lady Biddulph), Mrs Vinen, Mrs Fellowes, Mr Hamilton Rowan, Mr and Mrs Todd, Mr Hugh Baker and Miss Baker, Mr and Mrs Charles Bryant, Mrs Charles Bishop, Mr J Mordaunt, Dr J D H Wiseman (representing the Director British Museum of Natural History), Colonel Rex Osbourne, Colonel and Mrs Fitzgerald, Captain Edward Fawcett and Mr Christopher Fawcett, Captain J L Lowsley Williams, Mr Huntington, Captain Geoffrey Raines, Mr H Voss, Mr A W Rich, Major Hugh Rycroft, Mrs Robert Gibbs, Mr and Mrs Colin Henderson, Mr F A Pledger (representing Messrs Edward Boustead & Co), Mr and Mrs S H Westlake, Mr J C Murray and Major Burton.

Western Daily Press Thursday 19 January 1939