

Anne Webb, 1763-1861, daughter of Joseph Webb of Odstock,
Countess of Newburgh

Death of Anne, Countess of Newburgh

Anne, Countess of Newburgh, died at her residence, Slindon House, Sussex, on Sunday last, the 4th inst., in the ninety-ninth year of her age, after an illness of only two days. She was the only daughter of the late Joseph Webb, Esq., of Odstock, Wilts, sister of the late Sir Thomas Webb, Bart., and aunt to the present sir Henry Webb, Bart. She was born the 12th of February, 1763, and married, in 1789, Anthony James Radcliffe, fifth Earl of Newburgh, the last representative of the house of Derwentwater, who died in 1811. With the exception of the Hon. Mrs Herbert, sister to the late duke of Dorset, who is now in her hundredth year, (having been born in 1762), the Countess of Newburgh was the oldest member of the Peerage. She preserved her mental faculties to the last, and died peacefully and without struggle.
