

Crime Reports

Pitton & Farley

1700-1799

1784

In the night of Friday last a seizure was made at Pitton near Farley, consisting of 58 gallons of rum, 46 of brandy, 12 of gin, five bags of common tea, and 7 horses, by a party of light horse who brought the same to Salisbury the next morning. Bath Chronicle Thursday 4 March 1784