

Buildings To Let

Potterne

1768

To be Lett – At Lady-Day, for such Term as shall be agreed on, at Pottern, two miles from Devizes. Very good Modern-built House, now in the possession of the Rev. Dr Stone; with a Coach-Gouse, stabling for seven horses, two orchards, a large Garden, and every conveniency that can be wanted. The house consists of two parlours, a Hall, Kitchen and Servants Pantry on the ground floor; 4 Bed-Chambers, and as many garrets.

For Particulars apply at the said House

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Salisbury, Wilts. – 8 February 1768

1768

(Pottern) To be let immediately

A convenient dwelling house, consisting of two parlours, a kitchen, four bedchambers and garrets, a brewhouse and other convenient outhouses, a double coach-house, stabling for four horses, and a garden, all in exceeding good repair, situate in Pottern, two miles from Devizes.

For particulars enquire of Mr Robert Glass, of Pottern aforesaid or of Edward Chiffence, at the Sign of the Organ there, who will show the premises.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Salisbury, Wilts. - 11 July 1768.

1770

To be LETT immediately, at Potterne, two miles from Devizes, a very pleasant vilage, where a family may be supplied with every thing.

A modern-built BRICK HOUSE, consisting of a hall, two good parlours, a kitchen, and out-offices, four bed chambers neatly prepared, and garrets over them; a Coach House, and stabling for seven horses; a pleasant garden full cropp'd, and two Orchards.

The whole to be lett for 15 l. a year. The furniture entirely new, abd to be had upon easy Terms.

Enquire at the said house, or of John Monck, Esq. In Brock Street, Bath.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, Bath, Som. - 26 April 1770

1791

Malting and Baking

TO be LETT, and entered upon Michaelmas next, for a term of 4 or 7 years, A large Dwelling House, with Bake house and Malt house adjoining, situate in the parish of Pottern, close to the turnpike road leading from Devizes to Market Lavington.

Enquire of Robert Watts, George Inn, Pottern.

The first three years rent will be taken in Malt

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, Bath, Som. - 8 September 1791