

Tramp Steals Candlestick From Lodging-House

Marlborough, County Petty Sessions, 25th August. Present: Challoner Smith, Esq.,; the Revs. J Hawkins, G. A. Goddard, and Captain Seymour.

A tramp, giving the name of James Godfrey, of Glastonbury, Somerset, was brought up in the custody of P.C. Perrett, charged with stealing a brass candlestick from a lodging-house at Ramsbury, on the 18th August, kept by Eliza Waight. Committed for one month under the criminal Justice Act.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 1 September 1860