

Crime Reports

Rowde
1700-1799

1769

Stolen or Stray From Rowd Farm, near Devizes, in the County of Wilts. A light brown Mare, with Foal, about 14 hands $\frac{1}{2}$ high, with a blaze on her face and a strip on her nose, a blemish in the near eye, a small white spot on the bum, wrung in the shoulders with the collar, a white foot behind, and a flisk tail. Whoever will give intelligence of the said mare, so that she may be had again, to Mrs Eliz. Spencer, of Rowd Farm aforesaid, shall receive one guinea reward and all reasonable charges, by ELIZABETH SPENCER. Salisbury and Winchester Journal 6 February 1769