

The Bond and simple Contract Creditors of Eliz. Grant, late of Rowd in the county of Wilts, widow, deceased, are desired to fend an account of their demands to Mr. John Goodman of Rowd, her administrator, or to Mr. Wadham Locke in Devizes, before the 25th day of May next, as a dividend of her effects will be made at ten o'clock on that day at the Horse being a public house in Rowd; and the person or persons who do not send such account will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette 19 April 1781