We have great pleasure in recording a very kind act of seasonable benevolence towards the poor of this parish on the part of its rector (the Rev. James Davies, of Braishfield House, near Romsey). The Rev. gentleman has just sent £25 to the curate in charge (the Rev. F. A. Alley) to buy coals for the poor, and which Mr. Alley has commenced distributing weekly at 6d. per cwt. To every family in need of it.
