To the Glory of God and in loving memory of

Alan Wyldbore Bosworth Smith

Lieutenant in the Royal Navy.

Second son of Reginald Bosworth and Flora Smith

Of Bingham's Melcombe, Dorset;

Born at Harrow on-the-Hill on April 13th 1870, who on September 18th 1901, while H.M.S. Cobra, of which he was in command, was breaking up in a storm, remained standing on the bridge with arms folded to the last, and went down with his vessel.

"I will fear no evil."

"Mine own will I bring again from the depths of the sea."
