

County Ball

The county ball took place at the Assembly-rooms, on Tuesday evening, and was attended by a large number of fashionables than have been present at these annual re-unions for many years past. The assemblage was a very brilliant one, and numbered upward of 150 of the elite of the city and neighbourhood. The room was most tastefully decorated by Mr. Gostage, and Targett's quadrille band played a suitable programme remarkably well. A really splendid supper was supplied by Mrs. Brown, pastry cook, of Catherine Street, and wines of good quality were furnished from the firm of Large and Co, wine merchants. The names of the following noblemen and gentlemen appeared as stewards:-
