

Employment & Business News

Salisbury
1700-1799

1789

MARKET-PLACE, SALISBURY, Nov. 7, 1789.

WILLIAM STEPHENS respectfully informs the public, that he has laid in a fresh and fashionable assortment of Silk Mercery, Hosiery, Haberdashery, and all sorts of Stuff Goods; and that their orders will be punctually attended to, and gratefully acknowledged.

N.B. A variety of cheap plain Sattins for Gowns, of the newest colours.

 Funerals completely

furnished. Salisbury & Winchester Gazette, 9 November 1789