

Postal Staff Called to the Front

War Telegraphists

Sapper Collins, of Salisbury Postal Telegraph staff, and Sapper Hurdle (son of Mr. Hurdle, of Crane Bridge Road, Salisbury), were summoned to Aldershot on Wednesday, preparatory to embarking for South Africa, via Liverpool, in the Canada.

Salisbury Times, Friday, 1 December 1899

Reservists in the Salisbury Post Office

Messrs. Snook, Stokes, Vincent, and Phillimore, postman reservists in the 2nd Wiltshire Regiment, having been called to the front, were presented with pipes, tobacco, and chocolate, by the staff. The presentation was made by Mr. King, head postman, with a few appropriate remarks, in the presence of about 40 officials, principally postmen.

Salisbury Times, Friday, 15 December 1899