

Sale of Bacon at Chough Inn

Ware-Room,
Chough Inn, Market Place, Salisbury

J. Huntley embraces the present opportunity of presenting his grateful acknowledgements to the Inhabitants of Salisbury, Gentlemen Farmers, and others in the country, for the encouragement they have given him in the sale of Bacon during his stay here; and further informs them, the Sale will positively close on Tuesday the 28th of this month.

N.B. H. has by him a few heavy sides of choice fine meat, at the usual prices.

Salisbury, January 13, 1812.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday 20 January 1812

