Chaplains Of St. Nicholas Hospital

| Year | Surname | Given Name | Notes |
|---------|-----------|------------|-----------------------------------|
| c. 1290 | Wokingham | W. de | Afterwards Master or St. Nicholas |
| 1321 | Boyton | William de | |
| 1322 | Romeseye | Peter de | Afterwards Master or St. Nicholas |

From the year 1300 down to present time the Masters of St. Nicholas have always received Institution from the Bishop into ecclesiastical office of principal Chaplain of the Hospital (excepting, of course, the laymen intruded in 1644-58). Previous to the dissolution of the Chantry of St. John's Isle there were three chaplains beside the master.
