

School & Education News

Berwick St Leonard

Thatching Class at Fonthill Bishop and Berwick St Leonard.

A thatching class has recently been held at Fonthill Bishop and Berwick St Leonard, under the auspices of the Agricultural Education Committee, when six pupils received instruction. The competition of County Council prizes was held on Thursday, the 17th January, and was judged by Mr. John Lush of Sedgehill, and Mr. Henry Cadley, of Harwood Farm, Ansty. The class was under the management of the Tisbury Local Committee. The judges reported highly of the work done. The first and second prizes were gained by pupils who had done no thatching previously to their becoming pupils of the class. The prizes were awarded as under:- First prize, A. Godwin; second prize, Lot Newbury; third prize, Frank Bartlett; attendance prizes, William Doughty, G. Cheverall and T. Goodfellow.

Wiltshire Times, Saturday, 26 January 1907