

Crime and Punishment

Seend

1737

MURDER BY POISON - Last week was committed to Salisbury Gaol, Edward Pillen of Seend in the County of Wilts, for wilful murder committed on the body of his son, by poison; his wife, who was poisoned by him at the same time, is said to be dead since he was committed. Stamford Mercury Thursday 10 March 1737