Fatality At The New Inn - They write from Melksham in Wilts, that a few days ago an unhappy accident happened at the New Inn at Seend near that place: A sawyer at Caln endeavouring to get out of a window before it was light, unfortunately leaped upon the lid of a cover of a well, which broke in with him, and he was drowned, tho' his father and brother were near him, yet they could give him no assistance.
