

Seend
Funeral Report
1889

Mrs Ludlow-Bruges. The funeral of this much esteemed lady, whose death was recorded in our last issue, took place on Friday, and in strict accordance with the expressed wish of the deceased, was as simple and as private as possible.....

...Those present included Mr H Hungerford Ludlow-Bruges and Miss Ludlow-Bruges (son and daughter of the deceased), Mr and Miss Penruddocke (brother and niece of the deceased), Rev J H Gale and Mrs Gale (Milton), Mr and Mrs Gwatkin, Mr and Mrs Lee, Mr Grant Meek, Dr Carless, Mr Locke (Melksham), Mr Simpson (Devizes), Mr Newman (Melksham), Mrs Giles Daubeny, Mrs Thynne and several other ladies, with a large number of the poorer parishioners.

Among those who sent wreaths were Mr Richard Ludlow-Bruges, Mr Hungerford Ludlow-Bruges, Miss Bertha Ludlow-Bruges, Miss Eleanor Ludlow-Bruges and Miss Agnes Ludlow Wyndham (surviving children), Mrs R Ludlow-Bruges (daughter-in-law), all the servants of the household and on the estate, Mr and Lady Doreen Long, Mrs Long, Mrs Wyndham (Hinton, Hants), the Rev A B and Mrs Thynne, Mrs Leconby Phipps, Mr and Mrs Grant Meek, Mrs Hungerford Penruddocke, Dr and Mrs Carless, Mr and Mrs Medlicott, Mr Edward C Schomberg, the Misses Schomberg, the Rev A G and Mrs Smith, Mr and Mrs Gwatkin, Mrs and the Misses St George, Mr and Mrs Dixon, Mr and Mrs Prowse, Mr and Mrs Mizen, Mr and Mrs Miles, Miss Beazley &c.

A muffled peal was rung in the evening.

The funeral arrangements were entrusted to Mr C Romain of Devizes.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 12 December 1889