

The Coat of Arms of Montreal, Canada 1833-1938

From a paragraph in the Montreal Witness we learn the honourable whereabouts of the son of a gentleman who, 40 years ago, occupied a prominent position in this town and neighbourhood, and whose name is still recollected with respect by many of the inhabitants of Devizes. We allude to the eldest and only surviving son of the late Charles Tylee, esq, of Seend, who, it appears, is now a merchant in Montreal, a Justice of the Peace for that District, and Lieut Col of the Foot Artillery....

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 1 May 1862