

School & Education News

Seend

PRIVATE TUITION at SEEND, WILTS.

The Rev Mr Mayo, MA, and late of University college, Oxford, proposes to take six young gentlemen under his care. The mode of instruction will be the same as at Eton, where Mr M received his education. The Terms are 70 guineas per annum. Board, Latin and Greek included.

Seend is a remarkably healthy and pleasant place situated on the high road from London to Frome, 14 miles from Bath, 4 from Devizes, and 3 from Melksham.

NB Any boy that has been at school already, unless under nine years of age or thereabouts, will, except in particular cases, be objected to.

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette Thursday 10 August 1797