

One of the historic buildings in Semington

Semington, Wilts – House and Land to Let

To be let and entered upon at Lady-day next, a Handsome Modern-built DWELLING HOUSE, with sashed windows and freestone front; containing an entrance-hall, two parlours, good kitchen and other conveniences, on the ground floor; underground cellar; three chambers, and a store room on the first floor; besides three attics, convenient brewhouse and out offices; together with good Orchard and walled Garden, well stocked with fruit trees; also a barn, stable, and about 12 acres of Pasture Land (partly adjoining); situate in the pleasant village of SEMINGTON in the county of Wilts, within a short ride of the Melksham Spa, Melksham, and Trowbridge and late in the possession of Mr. Matthew [illegible...] turnpike-road leading from Melksham to Trowbridge, Westbury and Warminster; and the Frome coach to London passes three times a week within a short distance of the house. For viewing apply to Mr. William Bruges, Semington, or at the house; and for further particulars as to tenure and rent, of the said Mr. William Bruges, Mr. Thomas Bruges, maltster, or Mr. N. P. Phent, solicitor Melksham

Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 10 March 1814