

Post Office Directory Extract 1855

Shorncote

SHARNCOTT, or SHORNCOTE, is a township and small parish, 3 miles south from Cirencester, and north of Minety station, in the Hundred of Cricklade, Cirencester Union, North Wilts. The living is a rectory, in the patronage of the Lord Chancellor, value £150 per annum, including 35 acres of glebe; the Rev. John Graenly, M.A., is the incumbent, who resides at Salisbury; the Rev. William Bartram, M.A., is the curate. Here is a small parish church. The population is 29; the area in acres, about 485. Joseph Mill, Esq., owns nearly all the property. Mr. Baker, Esq., is lord of the manor.

Letters through Cirencester, which is also the nearest money order office.

Residents & Traders

Surname	Given Names	Title	Industry/Occupation	Place/Parish
Mill	Joseph	Esq.
Sutton	John		Farmer
Weeks	Reuben		Parish Clerk	