

Shrewton Zion chapel, originally built in 1816.

Chapel Re-Opens

Zion Chapel, Shrewton, was re-opened on Wednesday, the 9th inst., for public worship, when three sermons were preached by Rev. Messrs. New, of Salisbury; Evans, of Westbury Leigh; and Winter of Bristol.

Collections were made after each service in aid of the funds for the building, which is capable of holding eight hundred persons.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 19 December 1846