

Life Event Reports

Southbroom

1850-1899

1853

Sudden Death A man named James Stevens, who lived in “the Nursery”, in this borough, was found dead in his bed on last Friday morning. He had previously been suffering from debility, and from disease of the heart and lungs.” Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 12 May 1853