

Penhill Farm

Leg Caught in Machine

Severe leg injuries were received by Mr. E. J. Leon, 578, Cricklade Road, Stratton St. Margaret, yesterday afternoon, when he was clearing a feeding box of a threshing machine at Penhill Farm. Mr. Leon, who is 45, received his injuries when, it is understood, his foot slipped on the board into the drum. Part of the threshing machine had to be dismantled in order to extradite Mr. Leon's leg.

Western Daily Press and Bristol Mirror, 4 February 1949