

Young Mum, 32, dies in Beechcroft Road tragedy.

A young woman has died following an accident in Beechcroft Road, Stratton. The 32 year old was pronounced dead at the scene after the collision, which involved a blue road sweeper and happened shortly before 4:30 pm next to the Kingsdown pub. Police today believe she may been on her way to collect a child. Her next of kin have been informed. Inspector David Ibbott said 'It looks like a tragic accident.' The road is expected to remain closed for at least three hours while investigations are carried out. The police later asked for witnesses to come forward.
