

Staff at Ermin Street Co-Op 2004
Left to Right:- Joyce Willmott, Pat Dockerty, Chris Prout (Store Manager), Jackie Chart and Dana Howell

New Co-Op Store Opens

Co-Op's Latest Shop Is Open All Hours

A convenience store in Stratton St. Margaret has been re-launched under a new name.

The Co-Op Swift Shop, on the site of the former Alldays store at the corner of Ermin Street and Windbrook Meadow, was opened on Friday. It will open for 15 hours a day, seven days a week.

New owners the Oxford, Swindon & Gloucester Co-Op, said the Swift Shop offers a wide range of fresh fruit and vegetables, meat and an in-store bakery. It also sells the Evening Advertiser.

The store also has a range of quick-cook, chilled meals and chilled beers and wines.

Fittings and fixtures include automatic doors giving improved access, new fridges and lighting.

The store also stocks the latest movies to hire in video and DVD format.

Store manager Christ Prout said: "I am very pleased to re-open as part of the Co-Op family and welcome back our regular customers and many new shippers.

"I am absolutely delighted with our spacious modern surroundings which will make the shopping experience better than ever before."

The store's opening hours are Monday to Sunday, from 7 am to 10pm.

Swindon Evening Advertiser, 17 February 2004