Newspaper Reports

MEREWETHER

Mrs Stoops, of Morgan Street, Merewether, has been notified that her son, Private J. J. Stoops, has arrived in England.

(Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners' Advocate, NSW – Saturday 28 September, 1918)

ROLL OF HONOUR

STOOPS - In sad but loving memory of my dear son, Private John Jacob Stoops, died of illness in England October 20, 1918, aged 22 years 6 months.

Could only his mother have clasped his hand,
The son we loved so well,
Or kissed his brow when death was near,
And whispered, my dear son, farewell.
I seem to see his dear, kind face,
As he bade me a last good-bye,
His simple words, "Worry not."
One year has passed, and none can tell
The loss of one we loved so well,
His heart was good, his spirit brave,
His resting place a soldier's grave.
To have, to love, and then to part,
Is the saddest pain to a mother's heart.

Inserted by his loving mother and step-father, Mr and Mrs J. Sculthorpe, Adamstown.

STOOPS - In loving memory of my dear grandson, Private J. J. Stoops, who died at Sutton Venney October 20, 1918; aged 21 years.

When we see the boys returning,
Our hearts do throb with pain,
To think you are not there, dear Jake,
And never will come home again.

Inserted by his loving grandmother, Mrs. S. Stoops, 82 Morgan-street, Merewether.

STOOPS - In loving memory of my dear brother, Private J. J. Stoops, who died at Sutton Venney October 20, 1918; aged 21 years.

Could I, his sister, have clasped his hand,
The brother I loved so well,
Or kissed his brow when death was near,
And whispered, my-brother, farewell.

Inserted by his loving sister and brother, E. and H. Lloyd, Merewether.

(Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners' Advocate, NSW – Monday 20 October, 1919)

ROLL OF HONOUR

STOOPS - In loving memory of our dear son, Private J. Stoops, died in England from illness October 20, 1918; aged 22 years.

A beautiful memory left behind
Of a son, loving, true, and kind;
We have lost, but heaven has gained
One of the best this world contained.

Inserted by his loving mother and stepfather, Mrs. and Mr. Sculthorpe, Adamstown.

(Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners' Advocate, NSW – Thursday 21 October, 1920)

ROLL OF HONOUR

STOOPS - In loving memory of our dear son, Private J. J. Stoops, died with sickness in England on October 20, 1919: aged 24 years and 6 months.

No one he loved was by his side,
Could witness his last faint sigh,
Or whisper just one loving word
Before he closed his eyes.

Inserted by his loving mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Sculthorpe, Adamstown. .

(Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners' Advocate, NSW – Thursday 20 October, 1921)

ROLL OF HONOUR

STOOPS - In loving memory of our darling son, Private J. J. Stoops, who died from illness October 20, 1917.

While he lies in a peaceful sleep
His memory we will always keep.

Inserted by his loving mother and stepfather, M. and J. Sculthorpe and family, Adamstown.

(Newcastle Morning Herald & Miners' Advocate, NSW – Saturday 21 October, 1922)

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte John Jacob Stoops does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
