Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

A letter dated 1st July, 1921 was sent from Base Records to Mr E. H. Bailey of Nevill Street, Bayswater, W.A. (brother of late Sgt. Bailey) stating that a form enabling the next-of-kin to submit an inscription on the headstone at Sutton Veny had not been answered. Non-receipt of a reply within 21 days would be accepted as indicating that no further action be taken.

Serjeant Thomas Francis Bailey does not have a personal inscription on his headstone.
