The Red Cross Wounded & Missing File for Pte Ellery contains a request from the Red Cross to The Matron of 1st Australian General Hospital, Sutton Veny, requesting further details into his illness, death & burial. A reply from The Matron reads:

"In reply to your letter concerning the illness of 777 Pte W. H. Ellery, 10th Battn. A.I.F. He was admitted to hospital 9.9.19 with an acute attack of Pneumonia. A letter was dispatched from this office to his mother on 12.9.19. His condition was not at any time considered satisfactory as he was not taken off the Dangerously Ill list from the date of being entered 11.9.19. Towards the end of the month further complications were apparent – owing to the complicated lung condition. The heart condition became embarrassed. Another letter was dispatched from this office to his Mother 29.9.19 informing her of his condition. Despite all medical and nursing care and attention he gradually became worse and died quietly 9.30 a.m. 6.10.19. He was quite conscious until within ½ an hour of his death.

He was interred in the C. of E. portion of the graveyard attached to St. John The Evangelist Church, Sutton Veny at 2.30 p.m. 8.10.19 with full military Honours, grave No. 93.A.

He was "one of the boys" in whom both medical officers and Sisters were most interested, and for whom everything possible was done. Another letter was dispatched 5.10.19 to the Mother."

Private William Howard Ellery was buried on 8th October, 1919 in St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny - Grave no. 93A. From the burial report of Pte Ellery – *The deceased was accorded a Military funeral, the coffin (elm with brass mountings) being covered with the Australian flag. Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at St. John the Evangelist Churchyard at Sutton Veny. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte William Howard Ellery does have a personal inscription on his headstone.
