DEATH OF HUNT VETERAN

The funeral took place at Sutton Veny, on Monday, of Mr Robert Elling, who passed away at the age of 89. He assisted in the formation of the South and West Wilts Hunt and claimed to have hunted for 73 consecutive seasons.

The Burial Service was conducted by the Rev. A. Sewell, and beside the mourners present there was a large attendance of friends.

At the close of the graveside service, C. Adcock, huntsman to the South and West Wilts Hunt, blew a long low call on the horn signifying the retirement of the hunt for the day.
