

Shopkeeper Shames Debtors

Presumably tired of appealing to customers to settle their debts, a Swindon shopkeeper has now adopted a new method of trying to bring them up to scratch. Each weekend he publishes in his shop window a list of bad payers in the hope, no doubt, that the publicity will shame them into paying up.

North Wilts Herald, Friday, 2 February 1940