

Swindon Concert

There was a packed house on Saturday night for the first of the winter concerts at the Y.M.C.A. rooms, Fleet Street, Swindon. The event was arranged by Miss Kathleen Mottram, who also contributed to the programme with delightful contralto solos.

The other artistes were Billy Richardson (Wiltshire humourist), Jack Winter (baritone), Yvonne Sutton (soubrette), with Mr. Raymond Sutton at the piano, Chas. Dommatt (banjo), George Berry and Miss Iris Ind (piano accordion and song), Harry Thompson (conjurer), guest artiste, Private Charles Herbert (entertainer), accompanist, Mr. Bert Fluck.
