

TRESPASSING IN SEARCH OF RABBITS AT TILSHEAD

At Devizes Divisional Petty Sessions

James Beecham, a youth, for trespassing on the lands of Mr. Fry, farmer, Tilshead, on 23rd October last, was fined 5s. and the costs.

Beecham, with two others, who were tried and convicted in January last, were found in the plantation by Mr. Fry, who heard the report of a gun. After the occurrence Beecham went to London, and this evaded service of a summons. He recently returned to Tilshead for a village fete and was then served

His father, who now appeared for him, admitted the offence and paid the fine.

Devizes & Wiltshire Gazette 19 June 1890