

The Crown Inn, Tisbury

Bean Feast

On Monday last, a bean feast was held at the Crown Inn, when nearly 80 persons partook of an excellent repast, provided by Mr. and Mrs Bugg. The quality of the viands gave universal satisfaction, and after a pleasant evening, which was enlivened by songs, hand bells, &c., the company dispersed highly delighted with the treat afforded them.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 3 August 1861