

Tisbury
1800-1849

1818

On Tuesday the 3rd inst. died at her son's seat, Hedingham Castle, Mrs. Majendie, relict of the late Dr. Majendie, Canon of Windsor, Prebendary of Worcester and of this Cathedral, Salisbury and Preceptor to the Queen; mother of the Bishop of Bangor, and aunt to Dr. Prevost, Vicar of Tisbury. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 16 February 1818

1819

On Thursday last died at Bath, in the 58th year of his age, after a protracted and painful illness, which he bore with great fortitude, Mr. Edw. Bracher, of Place Farm, Tisbury. His loss will be deplored by a widow and ten children, and regretted by an extensive circle of friends and acquaintance, to whom he had endeared himself by his affable, honest, and manly conduct. The Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 8 February 1819

1849

On the 1st inst., at Tisbury, Mrs Shipman, third daughter of the late Francis Blundell, Esq., of Fovant, and a descendant of the late Rev. Samuel Blundell, formerly Rector of Codford St. Mary. She was much respected by all who knew her. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 1 September 1849
