The loyal toast having been drunk, "The Army and Navy and Reserve Forces" was coupled with the names of Private J. Peckham and Corporal H. Palmer.

"The health of the Chairman" was proposed by Bro. H. Lever, and drunk with musical honours.

After the Chairman had briefly responded, he left the chair, which was then taken by Bro. Toms (chief ranger). A song, the "Belle of the Ball," was sung by Mr. J. Beacham, followed by the toast "Prosperity to Court Wardour Castle."

Next came a song, "Old Simon the Cellarer," sung by Mr. J. Kemp; after which Mr. Toms proposed: "The health of the Vice-Chairman, Bro. H. Lever." Mr. Toms spoke of the great interest which Mr. Lever had always taken in the Court, and said that the present satisfactory state of the Court was in a great measure due to Mr. Lever.

Mr. J. Lever then sang "The ship that never returned," after which the health of the Host and Hostess (Bro. H. and Mrs. Woods) was drunk with musical honours.

Two other toasts were submitted, "The Visitors" and "The Press."

After several further songs had been given, this social evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.
