

Crime Reports

Trowbridge 1700-1799

1771

Yesterday se'nnight Jane Mattock, late servant to Mr. Read of Trowbridge, was committed to Fisherton gaol, on suspicion of being concerned in murdering her bastard child. Marlborough Journal, Saturday, 11 May 1771

1789

Monday William Barrington alias Barnet, of Trowbridge, was committed to Fisherton gaol, charged on the oath of James Coles, clothier, and others, on suspicion of stealing about two yards of superfine cloth. Bath Chronicle, 20 August 1789