

Factory Destroyed

Four People Killed

London, September 7.

A fatal and destructive fire has occurred at the establishment of Cutfitter & Co., Trowbridge, Wiltshire.

The manager Mr. Tatham and his three daughters perished in the flames. The key of the escape door was missing, and they were unable to get away.

The Examiner, Launceston, Tasmania, Australia, Monday, 10 September 1900

OPC Note:

Have been unable to confirm the report in UK newspapers nor are there any death records to tally with the information in the report.