

The Palace

This theatre is still going strong, and during the week some of the first-class pictures have been shown. The "Million Dollar Mystery" proceeds, and gives us the affiancing of Jim Norton to the heroine, and his subsequent rescue of her at the hands of the conspirators. Episode 8 will be given on Monday to next mid-week, and is styled "The Wiles of a Woman". On Thursday the star picture is "Court Martialed". The varieties are Marian Droom, mezzo soprano from Carl Rosa and Moody Manners' ope4ras, and Leslie James, vocalist and violinist, direct from the London halls.

To show that Mr. Albany Ward is interesting himself in the question of recruiting as well as pacing before the patrons the latest productions, we would mention that by arrangement with the Naval authorities on June 24th and two following nights a special film will be shown, portraying the life of a Naval recruit as it exists at the Crystal palace. This will be supplemented by a lecturer, who will give a short explanation, and recruiting ...

Wiltshire Times, 19th June 1915

OPC Note

Please Note that the final four lines of this article are illegible and have been left off this transcript.