

Soldier's Wedding

A pretty wedding took place at the parish Church on January 27th, the contracting parties being Pioneer-Sergeant Loder, Wiltshire Regiment, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Loder, of Trowbridge, and Angelin Annie (Babs), youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gliddon of Holt.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dress of white silk with wreath and veil and was attended by her sister Miss Gliddon as bridesmaid. The duties of best man were carried out by Police-Sergeant Gliddon, brother of the bride. Later in the day Sergeant and Mrs. Loder left for Weymouth, where the honeymoon is being spent.

There were many useful presents.

Wiltshire Times, 3 February 1917