

Police Constable Henry George Tanner

Police Constable Henry G. Tanner, died on the 5th September 1931, aged 33. He was found dead beside his crashed motorcycle in the early morning. At this stage we have no further details about the incident.

The following news snippet was found in the newspapers of the period.

Beside His Machine

Police Constable Henry Tanner (32), of Upavon, Wiltshire, was found dead in the road at Upavon beside his motor-cycle

Gloucester Citizen 7th September 1931

Henry George Tanner is buried in Upavon Cemetery, Upavon

OPC NOTE:-

At this stage we have no further information about the circumstances surrounding the accident. If anyone has further information they could add for example a photograph or news reports please contact the administrator. Thank You