

Church News

Upton Lovell

The Rev. John Vaughan, late Rector of Upton Lovell, Wilts, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday last, from Phil. iv.7, to a numerous congregation. The Rev. gentleman urged upon his hearers in the most powerful manner, the necessity of, and the unspeakable blessings that would follow from, an exemplary and Christian life. The parishioners, in order to testify their regard for their late Pastor, for his very many benevolent and spiritual exertions in their behalf, have presented to him an elegant piece of plate, bearing a suitable inscription.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 29 November, 1841)