

Crime and Punishment

Upton Lovell

On Saturday night, or early on Sunday morning, the 7th inst., a fine ewe sheep, the property of Mr John Ingram, of Upton Lovell, was stolen from the fold, and killed near the spot. The carcass was carried away, and no clew has transpired to lead to the apprehension of the offender.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 22 December, 1834)