

Upton Lovell

EXTRAORDINARY PRODUCTION

Mr Robert Titt, of Upton Lovell, has grown in his garden this season, a quantity of very fine cabbages, of the Battersea kind, varying in weight from eighteen to twenty-eight pounds each, and which being boiled were found to be excellent in quality and flavour.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 2 November, 1840)