Upton Lovell

Upton Lovell is a parish and small village, on the banks of the Wylde, and near the road from Warminster to Salisbury, 1 north-west from Codford station on the Salisbury and Westbury branch of the Great Western railway, 5 ½ south-east from Warminster and 2 south-east-by-south from Heytesbury, in the Western division of the county, Heytesbury hundred, Warminster petty sessional division, union and county court district, rural deanery of Wylde (Heytesbury portion), archdeaconry of Sarum and diocese of Salisbury.

The church of St. Augustine of Canterbury is a small edifice of stone, in mixed styles, consisting of chancel (built about 1180), nave, north and south porches and a low square tower containing 3 bells: a small window in the chancel is Early English: the ancient 12th century font discovered during the restoration in 1892 has been placed at the west end, on a new pedestal: a defaced piscina was found on the south side of the chancel, and on the north side an aumbrey with dog-tooth moulding; the church was repaired in 1633 and restored in 1892, at a cost of £600. In 1898 a sum of £500 was left by the late Mrs Sarah Ingram for the further restoration of the church, and a portion of this has been expended on the fabric: in 1902 warming apparatus was provided: there are about 120 sittings. The register dates from the year 1653. The living is a rectory, net income £172, with residence, in the gift of the Lord Chancellor and held since 1902 by the Rev. Thomas Joseph Lawrence M.A., LL.D. of Downing College, Cambridge, and assistant chaplain of Chapel Royal, Savoy.

Charles Ellis Notley and T. K. Harding esqrs. and the Misses Dyke, are the principal landowners; the land is all freehold. The soil is chalky; subsoil, chalk and flint. The chief crops are wheat, oats and barley. The area is 1,399 acres; rateable value, £1,546; the population in 1901 was 168.
