BACHELOR'S BALL – On Wednesday evening, the 14th inst. a ball and supper were given by the Bachelor's of Warminster to nearly 140 of their friends from the town and neighbourhood. Amongst the company were Lord and Lady Cork, Lady Heytesbury, and the Hon. Miss A'Court, Lady Dungarvon, Admiral and Lady Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. F. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Ravenhull, Dr. and Mrs. Thring, Rev. G. and Mrs. Festing, Rev. – Maitland and family, and Rev. F. Goddard. Dancing commenced at nine o'clock, and was kept up with great spirit and animation until five o'clock in the morning, to the well-selected music of Mr. Reynold's quadrille-band from Bath. The supper was both elegant and substantial, with a profusion of ices, Champagne and other wines – reflecting great credit upon the good arrangements, of Mr. Fortt, who was engaged to superintend the department.
