

Ukulele Band, Folk Groups and Choirs to Play in Aid of Wiltshire Hospice

A variety of music will be performed at an event at West Lavington Manor next month to raise money for Dorothy House Hospice Care.

About a dozen groups and solo artists will be performing including Dauntsey's School string quartet and clarinet quartet, Devizes School and Lavington School choirs and soloists, harpist Sue Casden, the Fr.ukes ukulele band and Bath folk/blues duo Balustrade.

A prom style finale will be provided by the Bath All-Comers Orchestra with the audience seated around the lake.

The event is on Sunday, June 15, at 7.30pm and people can bring their own picnics, blankets and chairs although tea, coffee and homemade cakes will be available.

Tickets are £10 for adults and £5 for children aged five to £15.

Wiltshire Time 5 May 2014