

Hunting News 1700-Present

Hopes are entertained that the Earl of Radnor will consent to hunt the pack of Foxhounds which Lord Pembroke intends to give up at the close of the season. The meeting of supporters, which was to have been held this week, has been postponed until next Tuesday.

Devizes & Wiltshire

Gazette, 13 February 1890