A note at the end of the original book records that the three names above are the names of whom the Clerks that took the Poll, omitted the Names of the Places where their Lands lie.

Those Persons whose votes are recorded as  denotes that the voter had died before the election took place.

If there be any Errors or Mistakes in either Names, or places, we hope the Free-holders will excuse it; for it is as True as we could have it from the Clerks that took the POLL.
